

HALFBRED - SCOTCH

Medium

Established in the UK: 18th century

ORIGINS

The Scotch Halfbred is produced from crossing a Border Leicester ram and a Cheviot ewe, usually North Country.

CHARACTERISTICS

Large sheep; without horns but with erect ears and a clean, white face.

LOCATION

Throughout the UK.

MAIN USES

Sometimes in carpets, but mostly in knitwear and tweed-style cloths.

Breed Society

Established:

1983

Handle:

Medium

Colour:

White/Creamy

Fleece Weight:

3 - 4 kg

Staple Length:

8 - 15 cm

Micron Range:

32.5 - 35

PHOTOS

Above: female

Middle left: female

Opposite page: female

