

BEFORE AUCTION

As well as objective measurement certification on every lot to be sold, buyers also have the option of viewing the sample bales wool before a sale.

DURING AUCTION

The Wool Board holds regular auctions throughout the year at its Bradford headquarters. The wool is sold electronically and bidding is in pence and half pence per kilo.

AFTER AUCTION

Once sold the wool is transferred to the scouring plant for the first stage of processing