

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

In order to promote CPD for the shearing industry, British Wool can provide bespoke training for shearing gangs at previously organised venues. The provision of experienced instructors by British Wool, can help shearers to update their knowledge and skills whilst in a shearers own work environment.

To find out if a British Wool Gang Course is appropriate for you, have a look at our criteria below;

- Previous Shearing Experience; Bronze Seal or above or be shearing a minimum of 80-100 sheep per day.
- Shearing venue must already be organised by Shearers.
- Minimum of three shearers must be in attendance, ideally 4 shearers.
- Shearers MUST provide their own equipment for use (i.e. hand-piece in good running order and sufficient clean combs and cutters)

British Wool will provide;

- One day training to enhance/review skills in shearing
- Experienced instructor

Cost;

- £275 + VAT plus the instructors expenses (mileage and accommodation if required).
