

Temporary Vacancy: Field Officer – Denbighshire

British Wool is looking to recruit a temporary Field Officer to represent and promote the organisation during the peak season months. The role of Field Officer is operating in the Denbighshire area.

The main assignment of the role is to attend livestock markets / agricultural shows and liaising with sheep farmers predominantly in the area specified above, applicants for the role ideally need to be situated in this area.

The successful candidate will be required to demonstrate a high level of commitment, self-motivation, and be positive to the remit required. Proactive in promoting the service that British Wool provides to raise the profile of the organisation. Experience/knowledge of sheep farming and shearing would be advantageous.

Responsibilities:

- Follow all guidance and training provided by the Head of Member Engagement
- Be prepared to travel to all scheduled agricultural shows/events/markets in the target area as prearranged with the Manager.
- Represent British Wool in a proactive manner, networking, and building positive relationships with current and potential new members
- Communicating directly with sheep farmers and shearers within the county
- Provide comprehensive feedback to the Head of Member Engagement on any comments, suggestions, concerns, issues received during events/shows.

IDEALLY you will:

- Be self-motivated, demonstrate a strong work ethic coupled with an enthusiastic outlook
- Confident in ability to motivate and influence.
- Present yourself in a professional manner at events attended.
- Excellent timekeeping and attendance to events
- Articulate in communications/good listening skills.
- Effectively implement instruction, guidance and training provided.
- Have a full clean driving licence.

Working schedule: 20 hours per week during May to August (including occasional weekends)

The level of remuneration for the role will be relevant to the candidate's experience/knowledge and will be made available upon receipt of application.

Applications (current CV and covering letter) to be received via e-mail to Gareth Jones, Head of Member Engagement, garethjones@britishwool.org.uk, Mobile: 07590 355885, Closing Date 21/03/2024.